

Blue Day Runaround

by Tom Farley

You say you got a blue day runaround

Everybody tries to beat your time

Seems like things will never be the way you see

To talk to them you'd think that you were blind

Oooo.Ooo...

Instrumental

You say you got a blue day runaround

More than any street-wise mama

Every night another place and another face

I don't suppose I'm the only one in town

Ahh-Ahh_

Ahh-Ahh...
